WHAT I KNOW ABOUT VEGETINE.
SOUTH BOSTON, May 9, 1870.
H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:
Dear Sir—I have had considerable experience with the VEGETINE. For dyspepsia, general debility and impure blood, the VEGETINE is superior to anything which I have ever used. I commenced taking VEGETINE about the middle of last Winter, and, after using a few bottles, it entirely cured me of dyspepsia, and my blood never was in so good condition as at the present time. It will afford me pleasure to give any further particulars relative to what I know about this good medicine to any one who will call or address me at my residence, 386 Athens street.
Very respectfully,
MONROE PARKER,
386 Athens street.

Dyspepsia.
SYMPTOMS—Want of appetite, rising of food and wind from the stomach, acidity of the stomach, heartburn, dryness and whiteness of the tongue in the morning, sense of distension in the stomach and bowels, sometimes rumbling and pain; costiveness, which is occasionally interrupted by diarrhœa; paleness of the urine. The mouth is clammy, or has a sour or bitter taste. Other frequent symptoms are water-brash, palpitation of the heart, headache, and disorders of the senses, as seeing double, etc. There is general debility, languor and aversion to motion; dejection of the spirits, disturbed sleep, and frightful dreams.

Gained Fifteen Pounds of Flesh.
SOUTH BERWICK, ME., Jan. 17, 1872.
H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:
Dear Sir—I have had dyspepsia in its worst form for the last ten years, and have taken hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine without obtaining any relief. In September last I commenced taking the VEGETINE, since which time my health has steadily improved. My food digests well, and I have gained fifteen pounds of flesh. There are several others in this place taking the VEGETINE, all have obtained relief.
Yours, truly,
THOMAS E. MOORE,
Overseer of card room, Portsmouth Co.'s Mills.

Diseases of the Blood.
If VEGETINE will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

GOOD EVIDENCE.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 26, 1872.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir—The two bottles of VEGETINE furnished me by your agent my wife has used with great benefit. For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and costiveness; these troubles are now entirely removed by the use of VEGETINE.
She was also troubled with dyspepsia and general debility, and has been greatly benefited.
THOMAS GILMORE,
229½ Walnut street.

RELIABLE EVIDENCE.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir—I will most cheerfully add my testimony to the great number you have already received in favor of your great and good medicine, VEGETINE, for I do not think enough can be said in its praise, for I was troubled over thirty years with that dreadful disease, Catarrh, and had such bad coughing spells that it would seem as though I could never breath any more, and VEGETINE has cured me; and I do feel to thank God all the time that there is so good a medicine as VEGETINE, and I also think it one of the best medicines for coughs and weak sinking feelings at the stomach, and advise everybody to take the VEGETINE, for I can assure them it is one of the best medicines that ever was.
MRS. L. GORE,
Corner Magazine and Walnut streets, Cambridge, Mass.

APPRECIATION.
CHARLESTOWN, Mass., March 19, 1869.
H. R. STEVENS:
This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" (VEGETINE) in my family for several years and think, for scrofula or Cancerous Humors or Rheumatic affections, it cannot be excelled; and as a blood purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I ever used; and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such medicine.
Yours respectfully,
MRS. A. A. DINSMORE,
19 Russell street.

THE WORLD'S FAIR, 1876.

[From the Nation.]

Columbia, puzzled what she should display
Of true home-make on her centennial day,
Asked Brother Jonathan: he scratched his head,
Whittled a while reflectively, and said,
"Your own invention and own making, too?
Why, any child could tell ye what to do:
Show 'em your Civil Service, and explain
How all men's loss is everybody's gain;
Show your new patent to increase your rents
By paying quarters for collecting cents;
Show your short cut to cure financial ills
By making paper-collars current bills;
Show your new bleaching-process, cheap and brief,
To wit: a jury chosen by the thief;
Show your state legislatures; show your Rings;
And challenge Europe to produce such things
As high officials sitting half in sight
To share the plunder and to fix things right;
If that don't fetch her, why, you only need
To show your latest style in martyrs—Tweed:
She'll find it hard to hide her spiteful tears
At such advance in one poor hundred years."
—J. R. Lowell.

PROVIDENCE.

The second largest city in New England, situated at the head of navigation on the Providence river, 35 miles from the ocean, and 43 miles from Boston. In 1774 it had a population of 4,321, and in 1800 this had increased only to 7,614. It numbered in 1870, 68,906. Within the center of the city the river expands into a beautiful cove nearly a mile in circuit. A park, planted with elms, with graveled walks, surrounds the cove.

The Providence Gazette was the first paper ever printed here in 1762. There are now issued in this city four dailies and six weeklies.

Of the three-score churches about one-third are Baptist. The first Baptist church, founded in 1638, is the oldest of the denomination in America.

Brown University is the leading educational institution of the state. The Quaker school in the easterly part of the city has long been a noted institution.

The Arcade is a noted granite building. 225 feet long, extending from Westminster to Weybosset street, with imposing Doric porticoes on both streets, and containing 82 retail stores

All the railroads entering Providence occupy the same station—a spacious brick structure, 700 feet long. Numerous steamboats ply between the city and all points on Narragansett bay.

The cotton, wool, iron, gold and silver manufacures of Providence are enormous. The American Screw Company is the best paying property, monopolizing, as it does, this business for nearly the whole country.

"Providence was first settled in 1636, by Roger Williams, who was banished from Massachusetts on account of his religious opinions, and who, in his new colony, was the first to propose and establish the principle of universal freedom in religious matters. The rock on the banks of the Seekonk river on which he landed, and where he was received by the Indians, is about a mile from the centre of the city. The town received its first patent from Charles I in 1643. Chartered as a city in 1832. In 1575, during King Philip's war, a large part of the place was burned. In 1815, a south-easterly storm raised the water 12 feet higher than the usual Spring tides, destroying immense amounts of property, and landing one large East Indiaman vessel up beyond the cove, from which she could never be removed."

The coast-wise shipping business of Providence is increasing yearly. The Penn. & Reading R. R. Co. are completing convenient wharves for the receiving of their immense quantities of coal. The wholesale merchants of Providence are pushing their trade as never before throughout New England.

KINGS OF BUSINESS.—Parton, in his lecture bearing this title, relates an interview with A. T. Stewart. The merchant prince's rules of business are commendable, and might be copied with profit by many struggling traders. Said the lecturer:—The great masters of business have no mysteries, no cunning tracks. They simply serve the public with great skill and systematic fidelity. That is all their cunning.

Mr. A. T. Stewart once held language something like this in conversation with a friend:

"People come to me and ask me what is the secret of my success in business. Why, I have no secret. I tell them my business has been a matter of principle from the start. If the Golden Rule can be incorporated into purely commercial affairs, it has been done in this establishment, where every customer is treated precisely as the seller himself would like to be treated were he a customer. What I mean is this: first of all, nothing is misrepresented and no faults are concealed. Then the price is fixed, once for all, at the lowest possible figure. Finally, neither the circumstances of the buyer nor the magnitude of his purchase are suffered to influence the salesman in his conduct or demeanor. In our dealings with employes the same principle of justice is adhered to."

After a pause Mr. Stewart added: "Of course, I don't speak of this as deserving praise. We find it absolutely necessary. An establishment like this could not be conducted for any length of time in any other way. The one thing which we cannot afford is a violation of principle."

In the whole world, says Mr. Parton, I do not believe there can be found one business of forty years' standing which is not founded on the same principle of giving a good dollar's worth for a dollar.

AN ACCOMPLISHED DRUM MAJOR.—There is a remarkable musical association travelling at the West. It was at Omaha the other day. It is called the "Royal Prussian Band," and we are told that "it has created a genuine sensation among the music lovers" of those regions. It has seventeen performers, and of these Professor Weiffenback, whose instrument is the drum, appears to be the most wonderful, for he does things unattempted by any previous tambourist. A virtuoso who can play upon sixteen drums simultaneously should have flourished his sticks at the Boston Coliseum. We can well believe that a fantasia played by one artist upon sixteen drums is "bewildering," as we are told that it is. But this Paganini of the drum doesn't stop here. Even as the great fiddler played miraculously on one string, so does Professor Wieffenback extort the finest rolls, taps and ruffles with one stick, "while the other he tosses into the air and under his leg, changing sticks, and at the same time keeping up the regular performance." This beats even the flute player heard by us years ago, who gave all Nicholson's variations with the wind hole at his nostrils. It surpasses even the fiddler who used to throw his bow into the air at the fastest place in a presto, catch the hairy implement, and go without the loss of a demi-semi-quaver. Professor Weiffenbach in other days was a drum major in the Prussian army, and though we do not know that the experiment was tried during the late war, we should think that the spectacle of the professor advancing at the head of a regiment playing upon sixteen drums simultaneously, and occasionally throwing one of his sticks into the air and under his leg, might put to flight the Old Guard itself.

THE DAY.

It is said the Congregationalists are talking of establishing a camp meeting at the Vineyard.

Col. Waring's article on sewerage in yesterdays News should be carefully considered by our city officials and tax payers.

It is thought the new railroad bridge at Fall River will be completed by November first so that trains can pass over it.

Seaconnet Lodge, No 39, I. O. O. F., of Little Compton will have a public clambake tomorrow. We are much obliged for an invitation.

The complaint that numerous families in Newport were omitted by the census takers, does not yet appear well founded. The only complaint that has been forwarded to the proper officers as proof of the general oversight, turns out unfounded as the family were all counted in. It would be strange, however, if in any town there were no errors. It would afford us pleasure to know that our population reached 15,000, but we shall have to be content with a less number. The census returns show that the city is steadily, though not rapidly growing so far as its resident population is concerned.

The spirit of the dark ages still survives in some lands. The Associated Press despatches to the morning papers say,—

> A letter from San Miguel states that the town was at the mercy of the savage Catholic mob, under Priest Palacios for three days, who burned houses, and committed atrocities, yelling death to heretics. The foreigners there have appealed to their different governments for redress. The city is mainly reduced to ashes. Ten assassins have been executed by orders of the President. Six of them confessed to killing Gen. Espinoza for ten dollars each, paid by the priest. Others were told to rob the rich, provided they gave part to the church. Priest Palacios was made to be present at the executions. The other Central American states are taking precautionary measures against the threatened horrors like those at San Miguel. Later advices state that fifty assassins were shot, all declaring they were cited to their deeds by Priest Palacios, at San Miguel.

THE PRESS.

The Washington National Republican speaks of Andrew Johnson as "this progeny of the piney woods and degraded illiteracy; in short, this product of ignoble loins."

The Boston Congregationalist asks: "How about Mrs. Moulton's continuing in good and regular standing in Plymouth church after Mr. Beecher has taken his oath that she is guilty of perjury?"

We learn that while the "evangelical" citizens of Saratoga make no effective opposition to Morrissey's gambling rooms, they sometimes speak complacently of the fact that the public sentiment of the place is unfavorable to the establishment of a Unitarian society there.—[Christian Register.

We always feel sure about the Post and Traveller. They never deceive us. We open them with perfect confidence. Each religiously praises all that its party does and denounces the vile miscreants of the other party who are bent on ruining the country. For organs that never get out of tune we commend these.—[Boston Herald.

The Hartford Post is as virtuous as it is enterprising. Having published biographical sketches of the senators and representatives on the first day of the session of the Connecticut legislature, that body voted it $200 as a reward. The Post positively declines to accept the cash, on the ground that the legislature has no moral or legal right to appropriate it to such a purpose. That journal is quite right. It would never do to establish such a precedent.

The Springfield Republican believes that Bristow and Tilden are the two politicians who hold winning cards, and that if these two men "play their hands" with the mingled nerve and good judgment which a game for such high stakes calls for, nothing but the candidature of Charles Francis Adams can prevent one or the other of them from being the next president of the United States. The slight flavor of the gaming table observed in the above is attributable to the fact that Mr. Bowles has been visiting Saratoga, and probably talked with the duke de Morrissey.

The New York Evening Post severely censures those New York lawyers who permit themselves to be employed by Tweed and to accept pay from the plunder in his possession. That journal thinks that even a shyster lawyer of the Tombs would refuse to accept any portion of the plunder of sneak thieves in the form of hats, umbrellas, etc., purloined from the halls of dwelling houses, for legal services in defending such thieves, and that any respectable attorney would decline to defend a burglar, however liberal an offer in stolen trinkets the latter might make as a retainer; yet it says Tweed, by the payment of a liberal share of the stolen money in his possession, secures the best legal talent in New York in his behalf.

People may laugh at him, but we have a great respect for the man who found himself lately elected a constable in a rural township in Ohio. He felt the responsibility of the position and the solemn nature of the call. The first thing he did was to invest his spare currency in a horse-pistol, which he duly charged; and then obtaining a copy of "a warrant," he went into the woods to practice. He selected the most larcenous looking tree he could find; he read the warrant to that tree, and then cried: "Halt! you scoundrel, halt! One foot more and I will blow your brains out!" Then bang went the pistol; but alas! he missed the tree, which, metaphorically speaking, effected an escape. Still it was a lesson to him any way; and if all who are elected to office would show a like anxiety to do well, some of them, at least, might hit the tree oftener.—[New York Tribune.

Gen. Butler is nothing if not ahead, and his bid for the Irish vote, at the late O'Connell banquet in Boston, was so high that it will bother the most gushing of Democratic politicians to get even abreast with him. "As a not very remote son of Ireland, I look forward to the time when Ireland shall govern New England and New England govern the United States," was one of the pointed sentences of his speech. But how about the new-born citizens of African descent, in whose cause Butler has been flaunting bloody shirts into the face of the nation so violently for half a dozen years? To a man up a tree at this distance from Gen. Butler's speech, it looks as if there must be more Irishmen than negroes in the immediate locality where he means next to pitch his tent for political promotion.—[Philadelphia Times.

NEWPORT FRUIT MARKET.

To the Editor of the News:—

It is noticed by strangers coming here, that there is a very meagre supply of all kinds of fruit, particularly of peaches, in season, which are in such great abundance in New York and other cities, where it is difficult to find ways and means of disposing of them to advantage, while in Newport there is a demand where a large portion of them could be disposed of to good advantage. It would no doubt be a good speculation for some enterprising citizen to turn his attention to supplying Newport with a better quality of peaches than we have at present, at moderate prices, so that all classes of our citizens could enjoy in season a good supply of wholesome fruit. There are a few shops on Thames street where very inferior peaches about the size of hickorynuts can be had at twenty five cents a quart, doled out like medicine at a drug store. This is the more remarkable when we consider how near we are to New York where such abundance prevails. If some liberal minded person would open a store on the avenue, and sell choice fruits at moderate prices it would no doubt pay well.

STATE MISCELLANY.

The ship Carrie A Bentley, lost on Long Island while on a voyage from Brashear City, with a cargo of live oak for New York, was owned in Westerly, and partially insured.

The army worm is visiting Phenix, the farm of Gorton Burlingame having been invested by them and considerable damage done to his hay crop and oats.

The school house in Centerville, which has been sadly out of repair for the past year or two, is undergoing some repairs, but is expected to be finished by the close of the assigned vacation.

The new district formed by cutting off a portion of the Centerville district, which included Arctic village, has built a new school house for its accommodation, which will soon be ready for use. The house is 48 feet by 25 feet, with bell-tower, &c.

A young man named Thomas Banks, while attempting to put on a belt in the carding room of Aldrich & Milner's mill at Plainville, was caught and carried over the shaft with great violence, his body coming in contact with steam pipes. He was so severely injured that he died in about two hours.

The yearly meeting of the Narragansett Tribe of Indians occurred in Wakefield on Sunday last, and was attended by a large crowd of people, notwithstanding the weather was not favorable for the occasion. There were very few disturbances upon the grounds, and affairs generally passed off quietly. Monday many of the men who attended the meeting met at Charlestown Beach to participate in the usual sports of the day.

A lad in Valley Falls about ten years of age, named Michael McCann, like a good many other boys, seeks an opportunity to ride with milk men, butchers and other persons who peddle through our village. McCann, on Saturday, took a ride with Mr. Chace, who carries on the meat business on Railroad street, Central Falls. Mr. C. left his coppers and nickels in his cart, and while in one of the houses for orders, McCann carried off $2 in five cent pieces. Officer Leach was informed of the matter and caught the boy. Just as he saw who was after him the lad threw away what remained in his pocket. He spent 51 cents; he wanted to see his mother who worked in the mill; she paid the 51 cents to Mr. Chace, who would not prosecute on account of the mother.

Monday evening, as the half past 8 o'clock hourly on the Worcester railroad was leaving the depot in Providence, John Pikford, a carpenter employed at Elmwood, and living in the rear of Central street, Central Falls, attempted to get on the train, from the platform outside the depot, but missed, and was thrown between the moving train and the platform, and finally to the ground. He was found lying between the track and the platform, and was taken up and carried to the central station, under the direction of Officer Whitney, and medical aid sent for. Examination revealed the fact that his right arm was fearfully crushed, rendering amputation necessary, his head was somewhat cut and bruised, and there were symptoms of internal injuries, but just what, up to this time of writing, have not been definitely ascertained. His injured arm was bandaged, and he was made as comfortable as could be done under the circumstances, and then taken to his home in an express wagon, he steadily refusing to give his consent to be taken to the hospital. It is probable his injuries will prove fatal.

The whole number of locomotives in the world is estimated at fifty thousand, of which nearly fifteen thousand are in the United States, and nearly eleven thousand in Great Britain. The aggregate horse-power is estimated at ten millions, and all the engines in use—locomotive, marine, and stationary—are supposed to aggregate fourteen millions horse-power.

The collections will probably amount to $2,500. These figures are largely in advance of last year. The total amount collected last year was $1450.96.

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.—The annual meeting of the Newport Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held on Tuesday evening at the society's room 127 Thames street. PORTSMOUTH.

The usual services were held Sunday in the several churches, with the exception of the Christian church. In this church the usual preaching services were omitted. The pastor of the church, Rev. I. T. Jones, was absent attending the Christian camp meeting.

The painting and decorating of the main audience room of the Christian church is about completed, so that it is expected that the usual services will be held there next Sunday. The work has proved, as was expected, a very great improvement, and is very creditable to all concerned. New chandeliers have been procured and improved arrangements have been made for lighting the house.

Recently Arthur, a lad about fifteen years old, a son of Mr. Samuel G. Arnold, of this town, while chopping wood with a heavy axe, had his attention suddenly called from his work, by reason of which he struck the axe upon his hand nearly severing the fore finger of the hand. The necessary surgical assistance was offered by Dr. Benj. Greene, and the wounded hand is doing well.

LITTLE COMPTON.

The Rev. Mr. Fisk, of Springfield, Vt., preached in the United Congregational church, Sunday, from Job I:19. The reverend gentleman gave a most interesting and vivid portraiture of the character and sufferings of Job, and drew the appropriate lessons therefrom. The weather was particularly enervating and disagreeable, but the speaker arrested the attention of his hearers at once, by his vigorous and manly utterances, and held their undivided attention to the end. An appropriate hymn in which the entire congregation heartily joined, closed a most acceptable and profitable service. The committee who have in charge the supply of this now vacant pulpit well may congratulate themselves upon the success which has attended their efforts thus far.

The Rev. A. M. Rice, whose ministerial connection with the United Congregational Society of this place, closed on the first of June last, has recently made matrimonial settlement.

A severe thunder storm accompanied by heavy rain, passed over this place Saturday evening. For an hour the lightning was almost continuous. A tree on the premises of Mr. Rouse Pearce, was struck and shattered by the electric fluid.

☞W. H. Otis is coming.

THE SEASON.

⁂ Ex-Minister Motley is at Nahant.

⁂ There is a Russian count at Sharon Springs.

⁂ The Cape May hotel keepers are now making money.

⁂ All the boarding-places at Atlantic City are crowded.

⁂ They have nightly "hops" at the Mansion House, Williamstown, Massachusetts.

⁂ Few persons have visited the Delaware Water Gap this season, and yet it is one of the most delightful of all the inland Summer resorts.

⁂ The Thousand Islands Park, as the camp-meeting ground at the head of Wells's Island is called, is said to be one of the most agreeable spots on the St. Lawrence river.

⁂ The Old Sweet Springs of West Virginia are rarely heard of in this neighborhood now-a-days; but a Baltimore paper says that there are now two hundred and fifty Summer visitors at the different inns of the place.

⁂ The scarcity of beaux at watering places leads to a suggestion that some capitalist equip a number of nice looking young men and hire them out by the hour.

⁂ The West Point cadets complain of the ugliness of the girls this year, and the girls reciprocate by complaining of the stupidness and awkwardness of the cadets.

⁂ A young lady passing the season at Fire Island says her love fluctuates between clam chowder and a young Wall street broker, who is spending his money there with a free hand.

⁂ They have gotten up a "corner" in cholera morbus at Sharon, and the local doctors are making hay while the sun shines. Everybody in the place is said to be doubled up like a penknife.

⁂ The Prospect Park Hotel, at Catskill-on-the Hudson, is having what hotel keepers call a successful season, and one night Saturday there were more people in the house than beds. Consequently, some young men, not foolishly fastidious, slept on billiard tables.

⁂ The crowd at Saratoga might be considerably larger than it is and then not test the capacity of the hotels to an alarming extent. Not to put too fine a point on it, as Snagsby says in "Bleak House," the Saratoga season is neither brilliant nor profitable just now.

⁂ In a dollar and cents point of view the season at West Point thus far has been anything but a success. One of the hotels has already closed for want of patronage, and unless things speedily change for the better others will have to emulate.

⁂ Cape May continues to "do finely," as the man said who was splitting hairs, and a larger number of what are known as distinguished people are at Stockton House and Congress Hall than ever before. There is a great deal of gayety—much more than at Long Branch.

⁂ The first thing people who visit Saratoga for the first time do after registering their name, is to go out and drink half a dozen glasses of mineral water and then eat a hearty meal. Subsequently they send down to enquire of the hotel clerk the address of the nearest physician.

⁂ There are 157 children at one of the Long Branch hotels, ranging all the way from one to ten years of age. And they get up impromptu fights among themselves about 157 times during the day.

⁂ There appears to be a great many young people at Lake Mahopac—young maidens in frills and furbellows, and young men in two story shirt collars and big plaid suits. But it takes all kinds of people to make up a world, and the same may be said of a Summer resort.

⁂ In the way of amusements Atlantic City has hops innumerable, germans occasional, and small parties without end. The United States gives two invitation hops a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays, and on Saturdays Mark Hassler gives grand receptions and concerts. At Congress Hall there is dancing every night. At the Surf invitation hops are given every Saturday, and at the Excursion House every Wednesday. Other houses have dancing every evening, with occasional large hops. In addition to all this there are to be dramatic entertainments at the Excursion house, musical concerts at the new city hall, children's hops at the United States and Congress Hall and ventriloquism at the public hall. So, with all this, Atlantic City is by no means suffering from a dearth of amusements.

The discovery of a female mummy in Grand Avenue cave, near Glasgow Junction, Barren county, Ky., by Eugene U. Proctor, is attracting the attention of the archaeologists of the country. It is that of a woman four feet and five inches in length. When found it was lying on its left side, in a sleeping posture. The left arm was resting on the ground, but the left hand has disappeared. The right arm rests on the bosom, with the hand tucked under the chin. The flesh on the arms and lower limbs is shrunken, but the body and head are well preserved. The face is round and full, and a correspondent says, "very beautiful." It is perfectly white, and shows no Indian characteristic in form or feature. The mouth is small and the lips are partly open, exhibiting the front teeth. It shows unmistakable evidence of having been in its present position for an indefinite period of time. Crowds are flocking to see it, but no one has yet been able to tell to what race of human beings it belongs.

Keeping Meals Waiting.—Little things often interfere with our comfort very much, and one small annoyance is for men to delay coming to dinner when called. Sometimes they have an hour or more of work which they will do before quitting, and then they go to the house to find dinner cold and the cook discouraged. Nothing is more disheartening to a tired woman than a table full of dirty dishes ornamenting the table an hour and a half later in the day than usual. Punctuality is a virtue that men should learn if they are in the habit of being uncertain about coming to meals. Any woman worthy of the name of housekeeper will be regular with her meals if it lies within her power to have them so.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

☞This is the entertaining month. Downing will be in requisition with his accomplished waiters, Boned Turkeys, Pates Truffe, Game, Croquetts, Salmon, Salads and with his superior Creams and Water Ices that are sufficiently delicious for the gods to sip. He has large quantities of real French China that is beautifully painted, Silver Tureens, Dishes, Cut Glass, &c., for an entertainment for 50 or for one for 500 persons. IS YOUR LIFE WORTH 10 CENTS?

Sickness prevails everywhere, and everybody complains of some disease during their life. When sick, the object is to get well; we say plainly that no person in this world that is suffering with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and its effects, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Palpitation of the Heart, Depressed Spirits, Biliousness, &c., can take Green's August Flower without getting relief and cure. If you doubt this, go to your Druggist James H. Taylor and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Regular size 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you.

☞W. H. Otis is coming.

A Triumph over Humbug.

The constant gain in popularity of the national remedy and preventive, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the rapid decline of the fermented and nauseous rubbish feebly bolstered up by a false temperance cry, exemplifies a grand triumph of genuine merit over rampant humbug, at which honest folks rejoice. And well they may; for each accession of popularity to a remedy which cures and prevents intermittent and remittent fevers, dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, urinary troubles, uterine weakness and general debility, widens the field of its beneficent operations and is a direct gain to humanity, while every falling off in public favor of a pernicious compound, powerless for good but powerful for evil, is a blessing quite as unmistakable, but for a reason very different. Let humbug for once hide its diminished head. Would it were always as unsuccessful as in the present instance.

The difficulty hitherto experienced in eradicating Bright's disease, dropsy, kidney, bladder and glandular maladies, female irregularities, diabetes, gravel, pain in the back and loins, general nervous prostration, retention and incontinence of urine and complaints of the urino-genital organs is entirely removed. Hunt's Remedy promptly dispels any of the above afflictions and the blessings of health will be conferred on al those that partake of this medicine. aug11-nj-1w

Many who are suffering from the effects of the warm weather and are debilitated, are advised by physicians to take moderate amounts of whisky two or three times during the day. In a little while those who adopt this advice frequently increase the number of "drinks," and in time become confirmed inebriates. A beverage which will not create thirst for intoxicating liquors, and which is intended especially for the benefit of debilitated persons, whether at home or abroad, is Dr. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic. Containing the juices of many medicinal herbs, this preparation does not create an appetite for the intoxicating cup. The nourishing and the life-supporting properties of many valuable natural productions contained in it and well known to medical men have a most strengthening influence. A single bottle of the Tonic will demonstrate its valuable qualities. For debility arising from sickness, over exertion or from any cause whatever, a wineglassful of Sea Weed Tonic taken after meals will strengthen the stomach and create an appetite for wholesome food. To all who are about leaving their homes, we desire to say that the excellent effects of Dr. Schenck's seasonable remedies, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, are particularly evident when taken by those who are injuriously affected by a change of water and diet. No person should leave home without taking a supply of these safeguards along. For sale by all druggists. aug6-1m

Adams Academy,

QUINCY, MASS.

HON. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, LL.D., Chairman of the Board of Managers. WILLIAM REYNOLDS DIMMOCK, LL.D., Master, assisted by thoroughly competent teachers and by special instructors in French, German and Drawing. The third year of this academy will begin on WEDNESDAY, September 8. The design of the academy is to prepare boys in the most thorough manner for the best American Colleges. There is a preparatory class for younger boys and for those who are deficient in their English and elementary studies. The large boarding house of the Academy is under the charge of the Master, who, with his assistants, resides in it. The accommodations by the Old Colony Railroad are such that many boys from Boston and the adjacent towns avail themselves of the advantages of the Academy, while residing at their own homes. They leave Boston fifteen minutes before nine in the morning and reach there on their return a few minutes past two o'clock. Some dine at the Academy boarding house, spend the afternoon in the country with the boys, and return by an early train. Car fare is but nine dollars for three months.

Tuition—One hundred dollars per year. For catalogues address the Master. The number of pupils is necessarily limited, and early application should be made. jy31-1m

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Treasury Robbery.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.

Brown, who was first arrested on the charge of complicity in the Treasury robbery, will have a hearing before the police court tomorrow. Halleck remains at the police headquarters. He has not employed counsel yet; says he will waive examination and be committed to jail in default of $100,000 bail.

The War on Vile Literature.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.

Anthony Comstock, agent of the postal authorities for the suppression of the circulation of obscene literature through the mails, caused the arrest of several offenders today, and more will be arrested before night. He is making a general raid on the rascals who keep establishments on Fulton, Nassau and other streets.

Bogus Diamonds.

The diamond jewelry seized by Officer Chalker, which was supposed to be smuggled and to be worth several hundred thousand dollars, was appraised at the custom house yesterday afternoon. It turns out to be Birmingham stuff, and altogether is not worth a thousand dollars. The custom officers don't believe that any of it ever belonged to Mrs. Paran Stevens or any one else having valuable jewelry.

Tweed's Case. A Bill of Particulars Ordered.

An order was entered by Judge Lawrence this morning in the Supreme Court, granting the motion made some months ago by David Dudley Field that the plaintiffs in the civil suit of the Mayor vs. Wm. M. Tweed, impleaded with Edward Marriner, furnish the defendant with a copy of all the accounts mentioned in the suit.

Ten days after the receipt of the copy of the order the plaintiffs must serve on the defendant a bill of particulars, setting forth in full and in detail such parts of and items in the bills, vouchers, etc., mentioned, as they claim to have been fictitious; the materials and labor not supplied to plaintiffs, giving date and amount thereof, also setting forth in detail the alleged overcharges, and giving the prices at which the items should have been charged. A stay of proceedings is granted until the bill of particulars is furnished, and the defendant's time to answer is extended until ten days after the receipt of such bill.

Messrs. Christie recently sold two collections of pictures for £30,000. "The Fisherman's Return," by Collins, R. In the month of July there were one hundred and three new newspapers noticed by George P. Rowell & Co.'s Newspaper Reporter. Of these nine were announced by the publishers as being devoted to the Republican side of politics and nineteen to the Democratic; the other seventy-five claimed to be independent or neutral regarding politics.

The late Emperor Napoleon's "Life of Cæsar" appears to have been a failure, notwithstanding the immense amount of time and research employed in getting it up. Only 150 copies have been sold of the 22,000 printed, and the publishers have been defeated in the suit they brought against the empress and the prince imperial for 167,000 francs damages, on the ground that the work was not finished, owing to the death of the emperor.

The coal mines east of Corunna, Mich., have ceased to operate. They have recently been worked by lessees. A large caving in of earth has occurred, which has so impeded pumping that they have filled with water, and this entails an expense so large that the lessees refuse to pay it.

The striking workmen on the Lawrence (Mass.) water work tunnel have returned to work, the joint committee of the city government on finance having voted to recommend the assumption by the city of $2,600 back wages due them from an absconding contractor.

During the present year, says the Pittsburgh Chronicle, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has purchased and laid down on its various divisions, more than twenty thousand tons of steel rails and nearly nine thousand tons of iron rails. The main track between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, is now laid entirely with steel, and the New York division will have no iron rails by next April. The company first began to lay steel rails in 1860, and every year's experience demonstrates their economy.

A tragic event occurred lately in a divorce court at Constantine, in Algeria. The wife of Bel-Kassem appeared before the cadi and demanded a divorce from her husband on the ground that he had ill-treated her. In spite of the strenuous opposition of the respondent the cadi gave judgment in favor of the lady, who, triumphantly pronouncing the orthodox formula, "I repudiate thee," bounced out of the court. The custom of the country wills that a defeated suitor kiss the judge upon the shoulder to show that he acknowledges the justice of his sentence. In accordance with this usage Bel-Kassem, in apparent submission, moved toward the cadi. But as he drew near him his manner suddenly changed. Dashing aside his burnous, he sprung upon the unfortunate judge and drove his knife into his breast. The murderer then threw down his weapon and surrendered himself to the gendarmes, saying quietly, "I have killed the cadi because, according to the Koran, a judge who gives an unjust sentence deserves to be put Sewing Machines.

EVERY
HAS THE
Reversible Feed,

AND some of its advantages are, that, by a simple turn of the thumb piece it will neatly, quickly and securely fasten the ends of seams, or stay any part of the seam, without stopping the machine. It will darn a rent neatly and strongly. These features are peculiar to the Florence; and the Reversible Feed is just as simple as the direct or positive feed. jy23

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1875.

A little Idaho three year old fell into a well recently, where the water was only six inches deep, and remained there six hours before he was discovered. When he was finally rescued his pent up wrath knew no bounds. There was no crying about it, but such a volley of invectives upon the heads of neglectful parents never before fell from childish lips. Here is a sample: "You fink I kin tay in a well wifout nuffin t'o eat like a f'og? 'Fy wasn't no better fadder'n mudder'n 'ou I'd do wifout children !"

Jolly old Job's Comforter (to anxious mother with a son too many)—"Surely, ma'am, and you couldn't have said a truer word if you'd died for it—he's a right good lad, is that of your'n, and if you make a sodger on him—and it's nothing else he's fit for, so I don't deceive you—he mayn't run, and he mayn't be took again if he do, and he mayn't grow up a disgrace and a ruin to you—and there's more Dook o' Wellingtons and Bonyparties nor one—somewheres or somewheres else—if you comes across 'em !"
